"Teaching as a Subversive Activity": The Theory of Political Indoctrination Last weekend I visited the U.C. Berkeley campus and on a whim attended a lecture with the provocative title "Teaching as a Subversive Activity" Revisited. Because this was a presentation aimed at education insiders only, the lecturer, retired professor H. Douglas Brown from S.F. State, seemed perfectly willing to ...

Agglutination is a linguistic process pertaining to derivational morphology in which complex words are formed by stringing together morphemes without changing them in spelling or phonetics. Languages that use agglutination widely are called agglutinative languages. An example of such a language is Turkish, where for example, the word evlerinizden, or "from your houses", consists of the ...

You can help children to settle better into the new class by creating displays of things that are familiar to them. Give each child a face template to create their own self-portrait. You can use this All About Me Display Pack to display the portraits in your classroom. This will give children ownership of the displays in the classroom and hopefully make them feel more comfortable.
